WRITING PROMPT: COMING OUT

Thinking about some of the reasons that LGBTQ students choose not to come out, how can we go about changing that for them? Brainstorm some ideas on how we can make coming out feel safe for other students without concerns for how they will be treated. Try to think of specific ways that both teachers and students could do this. After you've come up with several suggestions for teachers and students alike please compile them in 1-2 paragraphs.

