

BEYOND THE SCORE

A CLOSER LOOK AT MUSICAL THEATRE

No One Is Alone

FAREWELL READER:
A FINAL MESSAGE
FROM CARLEE,

ISSUE THIRTY FIVE

C. BALDWIN

Dear Reader,

When I started to think about what I wanted to contribute to the Just So Kreative website, I began looking at all different aspects of theatre and film. I love television, I love singing, I love acting, I love story-telling, I love writing! There were so many options for me to explore. But one of the greatest theatrical art forms that has the most effect on me has been musical theatre. After some creative pondering, I thought that it would be neat to dive into the history of musical theatre and the many beautiful styles, talented performers, and genius composers that emerged because of it. I sincerely hope that you have had an amazing journey with musical theatre. I hope that you can not only enjoy the entertainment it brings, but the beautiful music and empowering messages. For me I am reminded that no one is alone in this crazy world, as long as we stay connected through the arts. Expressing oneself through the arts can have a positive impact on others, including yourself. Finally, thank you for being such wonderful readers. Even though Beyond The Score has come to an end, our journey in musical theatre has not! Musical theatre will continue to thrive, new works will be created, and new styles will be embraced in the future. What a beautiful thought that is! Again, I hope you have enjoyed Beyond the Score. My heart is full of so much gratitude to Just So Kreative and to each of you.

Smiles,

Carlee Baldwin
