

SCENARIO FOUR

Whether you are a part of the BIPOC community or not, everyone needs to learn how to respectfully respond to others who stereotype. Learning and practicing how to respond to these stereotypes is important. Remember to be respectful and kind in your words.

In pairs of two or groups of three, do the following:

1. Read these racial stereotypes:
 - a) Asians eat rice everyday.
 - b) People from other countries don't speak English.
 - c) If someone has black skin, they only come from Africa.
 2. Discuss as a group why these stereotypes are harmful.
 3. Practice responding to these stereotypes.

After meeting in groups, come back together and discuss the following:

1. What were some challenges you faced when responding to a stereotype?
2. What worked well in your group work?
3. Why is it important to respond to stereotypes?
