

SCENARIO FIVE

This is an activity that you can complete on your own, with a partner, or in small groups!

>Do some research about an event, a march, or a person that you think has made a positive impact on others. How has this individual or even empowered people and brought them strength? In what ways? What do you like most about this individual or this event?

